Huh, ain't life funny?
Used to be broke
Now I got plenty
So if you callin' up and it ain't about the money
(We're sorry, your call cannot be completed as dialed)
Huh, ain't life funny?

I'm just tryna make an honest livin'
Workin' everyday because tomorrow's not a given (Nah)
Listen, took a lot to get in this position
If you wanna know my story, better start at the beginnin'
With that ambition
Got 'em hooked, I'm gone fishin'
The game is money driven so I'm Brinks truck whippin'
See, I never sold out as I've grown the vision
The only thing I've sold out is my shows admission
So listen, get on the ground
My jurisdiction stretches over enemy lines (Bow)
The numbers in my bank account are gettin' better with time
It took a minute for me to get it but never you mind (Yeah)
And now that I got it, it's hard to say that I ain't earned that
Colorful money from other countries in the world stack
Counted at a hunnid' grand from Canada in merch cash
Headed back up in first class
And you know I got a mansion in Fairfield County (What?)
If you know then you know
That's a motherfuckin' flex
Got them acres all around me (What?)
All my neighbors are wealthy
My local nature is healthy
I'm livin' good, I can't even lie (Lie)
The money's movin', at this point don't got to even try (Try)
So if you're hittin' me there better be a reason why or
(We're sorry, your call cannot be completed as dialed)
