

Jedi's Code

Chris Webby

Try real hard but you fall, better give it all
Win or lose or draw, better give it all

Yeah, the world's a crazy place
I'm just tryna keep my inner peace just like you, you know? Yeah

New normal, that's just what they say these days, but Shit been getting pretty strange these days
The more I learn, getting harder staying sane these days
Evil reins only thing that doesn't change these days
Darth Sidious and the Sith with insidious plans
Who don't tolerate no questions if you lifting your hand
Then you're blacklisted and banned with no trial to stand
If you're not within the narrative a silencing the lambs
Blocked on Facebook and knocked off IG
Three strikes on YouTube for content ID
If they kicked me off Spotify, you'll only find me
Exclusively with thumb drives and CDs
Up in CT like it was the olden days
That's what happens when the First Amendment goes away
For my sake, let's just hope it doesn't go that way
But either way, I'ma say what I'ma say, fuck 'em

Try real hard but you fall, better give it all
Win or lose or draw, better give it all

You know at the end of the day, I got this platform
I got this microphone
If I'm not using that for something greater than myself
Then what am I even doing, right? Shit

Got a war between good and evil going on in front of us
Either running duck 'cause they bending over and fucking us
So muscle up, step into the light young Padawan
Tag-along, shit the dark side's only half as strong
Once you see through 'em and study the way they choosing
To use all these tactical moves, causing confusion
'Cause when we fight each other then we all gon' end up losing
Caught in the illusion while evil keeps ruling
Agenda 2030, shit might be coming early
A little birdie told me it could happen in a hurry
If you ain't worried, then you're outta the loop
But if you're in the loop, you might be getting found in a noose
While they feed us false news, that's how they be keeping power
Broadcasting to you through the 5G powers
Sheeps gon' cower, wolves gon' fight
Load your weapons while we still got the right, bang bang

Try real hard but you fall, better give it all
Win or lose or draw, better give it all

We all got some sort of role to play out here
As a member of humanity, you know?
And I feel like this is mine
Keep talking that talk

Fuck the media ties and all these secret society

Entertainers who been feeding you lies
Fuck these fake woke sheep in disguise
Fuck these people with the nerve to say who I'm supposed to be as if I
Have ever given a single fuck how they see me, so why
Would I start now? I'm just a disobedient guy
When they thought that I was beaten, I rise
I put my contacts in just so I could look defeat in the eyes
And it's deeper than this rap shit, so tucking my tail
And shutting my mouth, no I ain't never doing that shit
Past it, giving raw truth to the masses
Only way I'm leaving is fucking games and a casket
I'm profane to those who chose the dark road
Behold the pale rapper who's bringing light to the fold
My light saber is ready, a Jedi with a coat
With a soul unsold, let 'em know, yeah

Try real hard but you fall, better give it all
Win or lose or draw, better give it all

At the end of the day, it's pretty clear to see
There's good guys and bad guys
Jedis and Sith, it's time to pick a side motherfucker, yeah

Try real hard but you fall, better give it all
Win or lose or draw, better give it all
