

Knocked Down

Chris Webby

We'll be singing, when we're winning We'll be singing...

I get knocked down, but I get up (but I get up) you're never gonna keep me d own
I get knocked down, but I get up (but I get up) you're never gonna keep me d
own
I get knocked down, but I get up (but I get up) you're never gonna keep me d
own
I get knocked down, but I get up (but I get up) you're never gonna keep me d
own

I get knocked down, but I'm a be back in a minute
Glass full of Guinness till I'm passin' my limit Shots lined up, throw em back, never sip it Then my vision goes black and I'm in it We gon' open that bottle and break it in Chasin' that Makers with Jameson
Party when it's Saturday again
But you won't see me on Sunday like mailmen I'm on my Chumbawamba, clutch a cup of Vodka shipped in from Mother Russia
... Just a bad ass mother fucker
With a bar tab that got me crunchin' numbers 21 and under, this ain't for you
I stay lit drankin' brews and breakin' rules
With straight shots on demand, no Pay Per View So all I really got to say to you, is...

I get knocked down, but I get up (but I get up) you're never gonna keep me d
own
I get knocked down, but I get up (but I get up) you're never gonna keep me d
own
I get knocked down, but I get up (but I get up) you're never gonna keep me d
own
I get knocked down, but I get up (but I get up) you're never gonna keep me d
own

I get knocked down, but I get shit poppin' pronto
... Pulling up on my Dr. Gonzo
Suit case full with a lot of contro-Band, my shades on like I'm Johnny Bravo
Grab the liquor get wasted, until we all live in the Matrix
Sippin' my whiskey until I'm like sixty and need me a liver replacement Really I'm sayin', I guess that sobriety's one of those things I can't do fo r the life of me
... I honestly try to be, but bein' sober just gives me anxiety Knocked down like Apollo Creed, pour four shots and I swallow three Then I hit a little bit of Colorado tree, and then... Follow me!

(Pissing the night away)
This drink is all up in my cup
(Pissing the night away)
Knocked down but I'm gettin' right back up
(Pissing the night away)
And we do not give a fuck
(Pissing the night away)
