

Raw Thoughts V

Chris Webby

There's a lot of opinions floating around these days
And I got my own, you know?
They may not be publicly acceptable, they may get me canceled
But it's my goddamn American right to speak 'em
And if you got a problem with that, suck my dick

In a world made for the weak, the meek, the beta males, and the sheep
Too soft for debate, if they don't agree, then
They just block and try to censor whatever you speak
Only like minds on the timeline that they see
They anti-this and anti-that
So close-minded really, they just anti-facts
And you can show 'em the proof, but if it doesn't all align with their views
That they been programmed with from the news
Then they don't wanna hear it (nah), or even fucking be near it
See the truth is too much for they spirit, that's why they fear it (pussy)
They try to tell me no, but fuck it, I'ma say it anyway
I been waiting for the government to kill me any day
What the fuck, I'm not important enough?
Must I talk about the vax, how they poisoning us?
Or the Vatican and all the little boys that they touch?
I'm not scared, shit, it's not like I'm avoiding this stuff
Yeah, the First Amendment still lives on through me
And certain other motherfuckers who ain't on TV
We the last dinosaurs alive in AD
When we're gone then you'll really know that freedom ain't free
But if everybody got to showing some balls
These agendas they've been pushing would be slowed to a crawl
But y'all so fucking soft, obeying and going along
Sitting there, triggered over a song, I know the type

Got a Black Lives Matter sign on the front porch
Never had a black person in the house, yeah it's time to call 'em out
Virtue signal, motherfuckers ain't about shit
They just running at the mouth
With these pre-programmed points of view and these ludicrous facts
Asian hate? Stop acting like you knew about that If you need a safe space, there's some room in the back
With fresh vaginal wipes you can use while I rap, pussy

Yeah, it helps 'em all sleep at night
Knowing they signed a petition for equal rights
For transgenders, talking like it's their fight
When in reality they never met one in their life
They don't donate or actually do nothing about it
They just sit there, sipping Mountain Dew on they couches
While they clapping for each other and circle-jerking themselves
Applaud the loss of freedom and cancel those who rebel
And I'm the bad guy 'cause I'm white and not gay
Which means that I'm a bigot and discredits what I say
But uh, I'd rather have some toxic masculinity
Than have an inner bitch in me, bitch, so suck a dick or three
See, the algorithm's keeping you lost
And now you're caught in an echo chamber of your own thoughts
Let me talk while I can and speak to all my supporters
Before there's lawyers, threats, and gag orders

'Cause nowadays that's the American way
With this false administration that has led us astray
They want the country to heal but they don't spell with an A
What they mean is to obey and do whatever they say
But we tired of that, so when I'm here to rap
I got a duty to the people to bring light to the facts
Never see a day I'm taking it back
If I gave a shit then I'd use a mask for wiping my ass

And when it comes to the shot, I don't care if you got it
Why you care if I didn't? I'm not understanding the logic
Shit, it's such a Hot Topic you can get 'em in malls
"I just got my eighth booster", fucking round of applause
People scared to say it so they just say nothing instead
So let me make myself clear so they don't twist what I said
Hell yeah, I'll get the shot with a gun to my head
After they pull the trigger and they vaccinate me dead

Raw thoughts

(And I ain't no Democrat, I ain't no fucking Republican either)

These motherfucking raw thoughts

(I'm a free-thinking citizen of the United States of America, goddamn it)

Raw thoughts

(And I been seeing where this world's going, where this country's going, it makes me sick)

These motherfucking raw thoughts

(Fuck the New World Order, take that vaccine and shove it up your ass)

Raw thoughts

Oh, y'all thought I was done?

Hell no, this is Raw Thoughts, you know how we do

Line these motherfuckers up, it's time to get to work

Where should I start? Joe Biden I guess, old yeller
Shit, I'm honestly surprised he hasn't died on us yet
You ain't our president, dog, shit, you don't have to pretend
Come on Joe, we all know that you ain't actually win
Yeah, them puppet strings holding you up, Weekend at Bernie's
Dementia really slowing you up, should we be worried?
You're tripping up stairs then you're sniffing on hair
Someone go and get this geriatric man a wheelchair
And then you got a son making lots of loot
From the Ukraine and blew it on prostitutes
So I snort a line of crack right off the protective case
Up on Hunter Biden's laptop, so I'm typing in caps lock, like
Hi Fauci, I seen that mail leak, dog
Better get a better antivirus, call the geek squad (yeah)
The king of backtracks, last time I seen
That many wrong numbers was me when I failed math class

And Jen Psaki, I'm getting sick of that lying twat
Fire crotch always tryna tell me they'll require shots (cunt)
But if it's shots that they want, I'll let 'em have it
If they knocking at my door, checking my vaccine status
Andrew Cuomo grabbing asses like the old days
Still had time to kill more old people than old age
We all hate you, judge, and defame you
I speak for all Italians, we don't claim you (fuck you)
Injected Rachel Maddow with a fatal strain of mad cow
Walked her up a massive flight of steps and kicked her back down
Seeing news come out make me wanna smack
The dick right outta Anderson Cooper's mouth
So ask your senator, pass me the Astrazeneca

Vax your [?] dad, go and jab your stepmother (ow)
Rapid testing your ass when you have a temperature
Shit, we going nuts, don't vax the messenger

Like Kamala Harris in Guantanamo barracks
She's incarcerated so many people, I think it merits
Leaving her there to rot, she deserving of it either way
Just be sure you don't forget to go and throw the key away (bitch)
And you can call me insane, but Ted Cruz
Is actually growing on me, wait, let me explain
Shot-wise, he's been freedom of choice while also fighting for the First Amendment which I need for my voice to get out
So no matter how bad that I wanna hate
I give credit where it's due, I know it's a hot take
But before I'm off the subject, wait, you still ugly
Shit, Arya Stark won't even wear your face

I'll impregnate Melinda Gates, she said my dick was great
I said, "Shut up, bitch, get back in the kitchen, fill my dinner plate"
Then I liquidated Bill's estate
Blew their house up with them in it, let 'em incinerate
Gathered up their ashes and slipped 'em into some vaxxes
The FDA approved it and shipped it off to the masses
Had some side effects but they ain't worried 'bout that shit
Long as I ain't tell no one and paid my taxes
Get your vaccine, shoot up like fifteen
And don't forget to go collect your free Krispy Kreme
Go and get tested for fun to get a swab high
'Cause there's nothing quite like huffing ethanol oxide

And Zuckerberg will try to censor my words
Jack Dorsey shadow banning, this revenge of the nerds
New rules trying to regulate life as it was
More man-dates than gay night at the club
So I'm sorry that I had to come and stop the show
Before we all need a motherfucking shot to go anywhere
So someone had to come and rock the boat
And say shit that even Tom MacDonald won't
And I'm just one guy with the balls to say what I see
Even if I sound off a ways
All I know is that we're way too lost to save
At this point, I could write a Raw Thoughts a day
Shit, but these are my opinions, and I'm allowed to speak 'em
You wanna get the shot? Do you, it's called freedom
You don't then you don't, stop forcing vaccinating
'Cause to me, that's like pushing pork belly on a vegan, I mean it

Disagree with my views, that's all fine
I respect you for yours, respect me for mine
We don't gotta draw a line in the sand or nothing
Just respect a motherfucker that'll stand for something
So keep watching the news and keep trusting the numbers
I'll keep digging for truth and tell 'em what I discover
As they cancel motherfuckers just for raising their hand
I'll pull my megaphone out and get to taking a stand
Raw thoughts
