

When You're Drinking

Chris Young

We've been down this road before
How many times am I gonna have to close that door?
When you've had wine, and you're lonely
Why is that the only time you ever want me?

You can call me an ex, when you hang out with friends
You can call me on a Sunday, just to ask me how I've been
You can call me almost anytime, 'cept when you're under neon li ghts
'Cause you say you love me, and we know you don't mean it
So just don't call me when you're drinking
Just don't call me when you're drinking

'Cause I'll pick up and you'll Uber here
We'll do what we always do and you'll disappear
Then I'll wake up, still holding on To something that I'll only have, till you're sober and you're gone

You can call me an ex, when you hang out with friends
You can call me on a Sunday just to ask me how I've been
You can call me almost anytime, 'cept when you're under neon li
ghts
'Cause you say you love me, and we know you don't mean it
So just don't call me when you're drinking
'Cause I'll start thinking, that this time you really need me
My heart won't learn the lesson, that you're always gonna leave me

You can call me an ex, when you hang out with friends
You can call me on a Sunday just to ask me how I've been
You can call me almost anytime, 'cept when you're under neon li
ghts
'Cause you say you love me, and we know you don't mean it
So just don't call me when you're drinking
Just don't call me when you're drinking
