

Blue

Chrisette Michele

I ain't, I ain't, I ain't
I am, I, I, I

I ain't blue over the world
I'm just listening till it's my turn
I ain't new, new to the world
I'm just sitting in flesh, I am sun

This magic ain't meant to be tried
I got a smile I know it, I'm tough inside
This here grin ain't meant to tell lies
I got a truth, I know it, I could be nice

And I ain't blue over the world
I'm just listening till it's my turn
I ain't new, new to the world
I'm just sitting in flesh, I am sun

Some days I do warrior one's
I lay my mat down for it, look to the sky
Some days I live war amongst us
I lay my pride down for it, ego aside

And I ain't blue over the world
I'm equipped and don't be concerned
I ain't blue, sometimes you get hurt
Real big world, sometimes you get burned

I am strong and I am peace
I am brave and I am free
I am love and I am ease
I am brown and I embrace

I am strong and I am peace
I am brave and I am free
I am love and I am ease
I am brown and I embrace

My place in the world
My place in the world

You must thought I'm Boo Boo the Fool
You got words, I heard 'em, those aren't mine
Spirit in a body like you, you
Feed my soul to cover my mind

I am strong and I am peace
I am brave and I am free
I am love and I am ease
I am brown and I embrace

I am strong and I am peace
I am brave and I am free
I am love and I am ease
I am brown and I embrace

My place in the world

My place in the world

And I ain't blue over the world
I'm just listening till it's my turn
I ain't new, new to the world
I'm just sitting in flesh, I am sun
