

My Heart

Aha

Give away all of your devotion
Loveless, abandoned, open, free
Whoever calling not a hopeless notion
Mmm wear your red heart on your sleeve

And the lover comes
He can feel your love
He could steal your love
Your heart

And the lover comes
He can take your love
He can break your love
Your heart

We all fall down again
We all fall down again
We all fall down again
We all fall down again

We get back up
Run back to love
Cause we have faith
In God above

Stand up, go
Stand up, go

Why do I give up my affection?
Why do I still need? Still believe
Why love still has my attention
My addiction humanly is

And the lover comes
She can feel my love
She can steal my love
My heart

And the lover comes
She can take my love
She can break my love
My heart

We all fall down again
We all fall down again
We all fall down again
We all fall down again

We get back up
Run back to love
Cause we have faith
In God above

See when there's really nothing left is when you break that pattern
And bring it back into the fact that you were born to matter
Badder than any single rapper
Improving from before to after
A word for love and never cause I have to Everybody falls, just get back up to the ladder

We all fall down again
We all fall down again
We all fall down again
We all fall down again

We get back up
Run back to love
Cause we have faith
In God above
