High School

Chrishan

Oooooohh
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

So sick of love
So sick of the games
What's it all about? (yeah)
I'd give all my love
But something comes up
Now it's burning down

Sick of playing by rules, playing a fool
Playing the blues, all over you
I gave all my trust, still we broke up
And it's over now
But you'll always be
My one and only (only, yeah)

Girl you know you got me trippin' on you
Give up everything just to kick it with you
Like we did in high school, yeah
High school, yeah, yeah

I'd be lying if I said it wasn't true
Give up everything just to kick it with you
Like we did in high school, yeah
High school, yeah, yeah

I miss your kiss
I miss the way you loved me
(How did it get to this?)
I would never have what I had with you
(The love I had with you)
Sick of sleeping alone
Never sleep when I'm home
I'll sleep when I'm gone and over you
I gave all my trust, still we broke up
Now it's over
But you'll always be (always be)
My one and only (my one and only)

Girl you know you got me trippin' on you
Give up everything just to kick it with you
Like we did in high school, yeah
High school, yeah, yeah

I'd be lying if I said it wasn't true
Give up everything just to kick it with you
Like we did in high school, yeah
High school, yeah, yeah

And you'll always be
My one and only
I said you'll always be
My one and only, only

Girl you know you got me trippin' on you, (you)
Give up everything just to kick it with you

(Kick it with you, yeah, yeah)
Like we did in high school, yeah
High school, yeah, yeah

I'd be lying if I said it wasn't true
Give up everything just to kick it with you
Like we did in high school, yeah
High school, yeah, yeah

Like we did in high school
Like we did in high school
Yeah, yeah, yeah
High school, yeah

And you'll always be
My one and only
