

Need That

Chrishan

Right now sound
Sound!

Girl you gone ride
You held me down when I had nothing to provide
I need that
You never lied
You held it down and I'd give up my old life
I mean that

Double cup pouring fifths, two at time
There ain't nothing I could do to get you off my mind
I was barely making sense when I called your line
But I promise I'll do better give you all of mine
Helped me see what I could be
Got me right back on my feet
Told me when it's you and me
Ain't no stopping us
Time's that shit felt out of reach
I'd say things I didn't mean
Had you grinding on your teeth
At how wild it was
Oh damn throw it back for a second
Know them hoes be mad as shit when you step in
Don't need that pillow on your face when you scream
Know what I mean? Oh

Girl you gone ride
You held me down when I had nothing to provide
I need that
You never lied
You held it down and I'd give up my old life
I mean that
You know it's right
You told me things that ain't nobody heard in life
I need that
Stayed by my side
You held it down and I would give up my whole life yeah
