

Wavelength

Chrishan

I wanna walk on your wavelength
And be there when you vibrate
For you I'll risk it all

Girl I wear shades on my heart, just to cover up these scars
But I might take 'em down (for you, for you, for you, for you) ohh yeahh
And you don't know the pain on my heart
But you're the one the blame, from the start
And I don't wanna wait (for you, for you, for you, for you) no more
Oh, listen to me, baby, might be crazy, cause even through it a ll

I wanna walk on your wavelength
And be there when you vibrate
For you I'll risk it all

Girl I hide my face from your lies
It burns me anyways with your fire
And still I'm falling down (for you, for you, for you, for you) ohh
I can't seem to get away, from the hurt, I try to be the man, y ou deserve
But I don't wanna wait (for you, for you, for you, for you) w-wait no more, ohh
Ohh, listen to me, baby, might be crazy, cause even through it all

I wanna walk on your wavelength
And be there when you vibrate
For you I'll risk it all

I know we been through it all I know I messed up
I put my all in you baby you got the best of, my everything
All of me, fall for your love like a soldier, was all I could b e
So when you tell me that you leavin girl it's killin me
Thought that you was feelin me, you was tryna get rid of me
You was like my best friend, now we like enemies
I should of read the signs, wasn't hard to ignore
But I guess I won't wait for you no more

I wanna walk on your wavelength
And be there when you vibrate
For you I'll risk it all
