Yeah Woe Christafari alongside Koen Duncan Yeah We've come to let you know, Yes! We surround the city and burst through the gate Attack them without warning and we seal the enemies fate One thousand approach from the left side Ten thousand from the right But Jah controls the victory so we will still fight Chorus: We're taking over (4X) The sun shall not smite I by daylight Nor the moon by the night The Lord shall protect you from evil and watch over your life We may not win this battle But He will win the war We've faced defeat like this before but He will settle the score (CHORUS) Chat Chorus: We're step, steppin' up to the battle, battle We're step, steppin' up to the war We're step, steppin' up to the battle, battle We're fighting just like never before We're step, steppin' up to battle, battle We're step, steppin' up to the war We're step, steppin' up to the battle, battle We're fighting in the Name of the Lord Woe, we're taking over (Repeat) (CHORUS) Turning darkness to daylight To overcome the enemy Release them from captivity Most High and they shall be free Not by strength nor by might but by the Spirit of One Yes through the power of the Son of Man anything can be done (CHORUS) Woe / (CHAT CHORUS) It name, badada deng briggity bong skeng So galong Christafari come fe mash it up again Badada deng briggity bong skeng So make the Christians them go on go tell the whole a them Well this is not a show And this is not a game It is not pretend We wrestle not in vain And this is not an act We're under attack Spiritually hijacked--So fight back! (CHORUS) Listen, even though we live in this world we nah wage war as the world does The weapons that we fight with are not carnal On the contrary they have divine power to demolish all of the enemy's strongholds So we demolish every argument and pretension that sets itself up against the Almighty One / And we take captive every thought and makin' it obedient Take captive every thought for the Son!
(CHORUS).
