

DIVE

Christian Gate$

Close your eyes, look at me
Feeling the energy in between
Life and death, honestly
I don't think it's what they believe

And we're lost in the commotion
When the sky falls down, here's to hopin'
There's an after, there's a moment
Not everything works out

Just let me die
Silence always treats me better
I don't do well without an answer
Cry, happiness can't last forever
Die
Let's dive in the dark together

Ah, ah
Ah
Let's dive in the dark together
Ah, ah
Ah
Let's dive in the dark together

I used to break down and ask the advice of preachers
'Cause they're the only ones sure of it (But they don't know shit eit her)
Used to bother my parents with questions about the ether
Like, "Am I gonna remember or will we still feel like people?"
And I'm

Getting lost in the commotion
When the sky falls down, here's to hopin'
There's an after, there's a moment
Not everything works out

Just let me die
Silence always treats me better
I don't do well without an answer
Cry, happiness can't last forever
Die
Let's dive in the dark together

Ah, ah
Ah
Let's dive in the dark together
Ah, ah (Yeah, yeah)
Ah
Let's dive in the dark together
