

SECRETS

Chri$tian Gate$

10 missed calls and 2 drunk texts
I thought you said I'd never see you again
And you moved on, that's what you tell your friends
But they don't know that you're naked in my bed

I can keep a secret
'Cause I know that you need it

I can keep a secret
'Cause I know that you need it
Even if you say you're not attached
I would let you burn me
But I know you can't hurt me
Even if I handed you the match

I wanna show you
How it feels to be an angel falling down to hell
But I don't wanna own you
Give me one more taste
Then move on to someone else

I can see it in you, 5'5 with the daddy issues
You stay out late with some random bitch who ain't ever kept a friend in her life
I could try to fix you, but you only take tips when we're in the bedroom
If you bite my lips, you can get the rest too
I'm only here to ruin your life

I can keep a secret
'Cause I know that you need it

I can keep a secret
'Cause I know that you need it
Even if you say you're not attached
I would let you burn me
But I know you can't hurt me
Even if I handed you the match

I wanna show you
How it feels to be an angel falling down to hell
But I don't wanna own you
Give me one more taste
Then move on to someone else

I think you're a mess my darlin'
Certified, it's in your eyes
I know you want the best my darlin', darlin', darlin'
Best my darlin'

I can keep a secret
'Cause I know that you need it
Even if you say you're not attached
I would let you burn me
But I know you can't hurt me
Even if I handed you the match

I can keep a secret

'Cause I know that you need it
Even if you say you're not attached
I would let you burn me
But I know you can't hurt me
Even if I handed you the match
