

If it's only a joke, I wanna know
'Cause I'm on the edge and these boots don't float
I'm on top of this bridge and this city's cold
Don't let me drown

So if I swallow my pride, I'll be alright
They say I'll be alright, I'm still traumatized
Your worst mistake of your life must've started that night
You'll be just fine while I'm traumatized

Your to me, dead
Hopefully, it's all you need
To get over me, yeah

I'm not satisfied, 'cause I told you
You're livin' your own life, I don't know you
Oh, but this city's so cold, this is getting so old
I don't need to take your shit anymore

So if I swallow my pride, I'll be alright
They say I'll be alright, I'm still traumatized
Your worst mistake of your life must've started that night
You'll be just fine while I'm traumatized

Your to me, dead
Hopefully, it's all you need
To get over me, yeah

I'm not satisfied (worst mistake of your life, mistake of your life)
I'm not satisfied
You'll be just fine
I'm still traumatized

So if I swallow my pride, I'll be alright
They say I'll be alright, I'm still traumatized
