

Seven Days

Christian Kane

i'm a little heavy west bound and down i got a zero in the bank on my account and it's been a week since she's been home that's seven days of on my own that's my number baby gonna lay my money down my destination is dependin' on a right turn and bright field of green and i'm rollin' down the highway passin' on the hardway burnin' gasoline chorus:

i'm seein' signs up ahead in lights
vegas city limit line
tonight i'm gonna let it ride away and i'm puttin' down everything i own on the mercy of these bones come on man, gob bless these seven days well i sold my chevy for a couple hundred bucks and i'm bettin' it all and i'm countin' on lady luck me and destiny have made a deal and you can't shake these nerves of steal so come on fate let's see where we end up my temptation's already left me with a hand that i can't even see but i'm gonna play'em i'm gonna hold'em like a box car i keep rollin' these cards ain't got nothin' on me
chorus:

i'm seein' signs up ahead in lights
vegas city limit line
well i'm gonna turn this table into a one man show and i'm stackin' up my life to play on just one roll well seven's my best friend in town and yes ma'am i'll have another round but kiss these for daddy before i let'em go... c'mon...
chorus:

i'm seein' signs up ahead in lights
vegas city limit line
i'm puttin' down everthing i own
come on man, god bless these seven days
