

Hollywood

Christie

When you were young and without care
Who was your hero? Was it Dan Dare?
Do you remember that love affair
Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire
Ooh, it was a long time ago
How the time flies
The memory still clings to me
Always in my mind

And most of all do you recall
Hollywood
One thousand pictures on my wall
And every day another star was born
In Hollywood

Well, did you ever feel the need
Just to relive your childhood dreams
Of movie stardom and limousines
To see yourself in a magazine
Ooh, it was a long time ago
How the time flies
The memory still clings to me
Always in my mind

And most of all do you recall
Hollywood
One thousand pictures on my wall
And every day another star was born
