

Tonight

Christie

Are you feeling alone tonight
Do the moon and the stars keep you company
Do you still keep my picture in your memory
If it serves you right, I'll be there tonight

Are you needing some loving tonight
Are you needing somebody to hold you tight
Guess you need some affection now, well so do I
Don't you think its time we tried once again

Do you miss me the same way that I miss you
There's an ocean of time keeping me from you

I was thinking of you tonight
I was sitting alone with your photograph
I was lost in a daydream and I heard you laugh
It's a tragedy, you're not here with me
Are you feeling alone tonight
Are the moon and the stars shining clear and bright
Can you see my reflection in the milky way
So goodnight baby, and remember I love you

Do you miss me the same way that I miss you?
There's an ocean of time keeping me from you
