

By Your Side

Christina Aguilera

So if you call my name
You know my heart you claim
I'll be right here
By your side
Through thickness and through thin
You know my love you win
I'll be right here
By your side

Boy when you come to me I'm just in my head
Of how glad I am to be with you and
You just don't know how special you are to me
Can't you see we're meant to be, oh yeah
If you ever doubt my love
Don't fear, I'm right here for you
My heart belongs to one and only you
I could never want another

So if you call my name
You know my heart you claim
I'll be right here
By your side (by your side)
Through thickness and through thin
You know my love you win
I'll be right here
By your side

So now you know how I feel, baby
You have brightened up my world in every way
Share your feelings, with me baby
You can tell me anything
Keep me close to your heart, darling
You'll be close to mine
One thing that makes me happy
Is spending time with you, baby yeah

So if you call my name (if you call my name)
You know my heart you claim
I'll be right here (I'll be right here)
By your side (on your side babe)
Through thickness and through thin
You know my love you win (my love you win)
I'll be right here (oh yeah)
By your side

So if you call my name (if you call my name)
You know my heart you claim
By your side (right by your side)
Through thickness and through thin (through thick and thin)
You know my love you win (my love you win)
I'll be right here
By your side

Oh when you walked, into my life
You know you changed it for the better
And you can count on me, to always be true

Don't worry at all...

So if you call my name
You know my heart you claim
I'll be right here
By your side
Through thickness and through thin (oh)
You know my love you win (yeah yeah, baby)
I'll be right here
By your side (by your side baby)

So if you call my name (ooh)
You know my heart you claim (oh)
I'll be right here
By your side (oh by your side baby)
Through thickness and through thin
You know my love you win
I'll be right here
By your side (right by your side babe)

So if you call my name (ohh yeah)
You know my heart you claim (ohh yeah yeah)
I'll be right here
By your side (uh huh)
Through thickness and through thin (yeah ohh)
You know my love you win
I'll be right here
By your side

So if you call my name
You know my heart you claim (hey)
I'll be right here
By your side
Through thickness and through thin (through thick and thin)
You know my love you win (my love you win)
I'll be right here
By your side
