

Crowded Room

Christina Grimmie

Yeah-eah-yeah

Oh

Hey

How many times?

How many nights?

Wasted on trying to fit in

A different dress

Same old regrets

Vanity's wearing me thin

And this exposure

Over and over

Who is that girl in my skin?

In my skin

Here in this crowded room

Under the pale white moon

Blinded and lost in the lights

Looking for somewhere to hide

Surrounded by faces

Laughter and voices

Alone here with everyone else

Here in this crowded room

I found everyone but myself

Ooh yea-yeah

I dance in the dark

Hiding my cards

Don't want you to know who I am

Acting like I don't care

Pretend I'm not scared

Buried my head in the sand

The hand of a stranger

Makes me feel a lot safer

Lonely but not on my own

On my own, yeah

Here in this crowded room

Under the pale white moon

Blinded and lost in the lights

Looking for somewhere to hide

Yea-eah

Surrounded by faces

Laughter and voices

Alone here with everyone else

I found everyone but myself

Carry on

Move along

Holding on

To anyone

Get through the night

Just get through the night

Walk away

Never fade

Never break

Stay away
By the end of the night
Still here by myself

In this crowded room
Blinded and lost in the lights

Oh here in this crowded room
Blinded and lost in the lights
Laughter and voices
But myself
