

Everyone thinks I'm crazy
for thinking that when you see me you're gonna love me

but I tell them it's easy like loving is supposed to be

walk into the room love I'll be waiting
miles and miles and miles oh my love I've come to find
find you

Must request a dance or two until morning ruins
all my plans for you

strangely I don't give a damn about his circumstance or hang-up for you

walk beside this lullaby love for dreams of you and I love
miles and miles and miles oh my love I've come to find
find you

How
many ways
can I explain
my love
for you

without
sounding like a little girl looking up to you

taught
me everything
yes you taught

...taught me pain
and because of you I've changed

for thinking that when you see me
