

We have to be friends

Christine and the Queens

Touch yourself
Boy, it's all still there
Your mouth, your nose, your eyes, your elbows, your knees were supposed to go
But it's all still there

And you loved
Boy, open wide
A sorrow crashed on the floor, wasted again
But, boy oh boy, at least you tried

Don't you say no to me again
'Cause you know we have to be friends
Friends, oh-oh
Don't you say no to me again
'Cause we know you have to be friends

Touch yourself
Boy, it's all still there
It depends on you to look back and see for yourself
Boy, boy, aren't you scared?

And in love
You lose yourself
Like in this movie where he's gifted and blind
Don't you think it's just like yourself?

Don't you say no to me again
'Cause you know we have to be friends
Friends, oh-uh
Don't you say no to me again
'Cause we know you have to be friends
Friends
Friends

Don't
Don't
Don't

Don't you say no to me again
'Cause you know we have to be friends
Friends, oh-uh
Don't you say no to me again
'Cause we know you have to be friends
