

All I Do

Christon Gray

Everyday I'm trying
But not succeeding
I been tryna get through
But it's not reaching
I'm not on your main line
Can I beep in?
Everyday the same rhyme
Different reason

Seems like when there's good days
Old ways change things into bad days
And I been praying when the storm came
That the rain would wash away your heartache

But all I do is make it worse, damn
And all I do is make you hurt, yeah

First we try to talk it out, then we fall out
See, this what I'm talkin' 'bout, 'fore you walk out
And just for the record, I think we're better together
This is chess, it ain't Checkers
(But it's probably my fault)

Seems like when there's good days
Old ways change things into bad days
And I been praying when the storm came
That the rain would wash away your heartache

But all I do is make it worse, damn
And all I do is make you hurt, yeah

So what it's gon' do?
And why I gotta choose
You know what I go through, I just wanna hold you
Uuuuuh
On my good days
And you keep me sane on my bad days
Had an umbrella when the storm came
But I still found a way to make your heart break
(Cause it's probably my fault)

All I do is make it worse, baby
I been at my worst, lately
And if I'm the judge and jury
I'm guilty of the verdict
All I do is make it worse

All I do, I do all
I do, all I do
All I do, I do all
I do
All I do, I do all
I do, all I do
All I do, I do all
I do, all I do
