

Blackmail (Black Male)

Christon Gray

Alright thank you Lord

Small town 1993, two kids different sides of the street Jus' laughing and playing games, they didn't know one day they' d share a name
They grew up headed off to school, couple years came back to ju mp the broom But things got tense when they couldn't get the pretty house wi th the white picket fence But don't you know that where he came from they don't have thos e things
It took him long enough to save up just to buy that ring
She hears him singing no one knows the trouble that I've seen.
She grew up in a happy home he had to make it own his own, as a black male

It's a Black Male (blackmail), is it something that we do to ou rselves
Black Male (blackmail), Black Male (blackmail), Black Male (bla ckmail), Black Male (blackmail)

She seemed a little nervous on the way home, got a lost no sign al on the phone When he realizes where they are, he's thinking maybe she should drive the car Lights start flashing red and blue, she's afraid he's thinking nothing new She says, "sir what did we do? ", He says, "it has nothing to d o with you"
They put a call out for a suspect that looks just like him Around his height around his weight and he's got darker skin. " Sir I need you out the car I'm calling backup in"
She looks up to see her eyes another tear but I ain't surprised cause I'm a black male baby

Is it something that we do to ourselves
Black Male (blackmail), Black Male (blackmail), Black Male (bla ckmail), Black Male (blackmail)

Its hard I know and you deal with it everyday Trust God be strong He'll never lead you astray I'm here for you no matter what comes our way To be in love, this is the price that we pay

Monday night in the living room caught chills when they turned on the news
Missouri full of misery had to kiss his wife on the cheek They'll get over it after awhile is more concerned about what t o tell his child

Don't give into the worldview cause either way you didn't choose to be a black male

Is it something that we do to ourselves
