

Oh we in trouble now, you done got me wide open
How can I show you the way that I feel
I know you're gon' want me
Oh we in trouble now, you done left me wide open
Can't even show you the way that I feel
I know you're gon' want me

Pretty wings, butterfly
But I remember when you was just caterpillar
Never in a rush, slithering on the branch and
You was cool with the view until you wanted to branch out sooner
But you gotta get in the cocoon first
And why you wanna be the new her so bad
You saw the way them brothaflies be buggin' off the charts
But them brothers only 'bout breaking hearts
Plus they only want the monarchs and you're the real thing
Them bees they will sting and you'll be aching
It's the nature of the game and I overplayed it
Charming love lines, I overstated
We made each other welcome then I overstayed it
She waited while we dated then she was outdated
'Cause I was on take six and left her on solo
Her face was boohoo and she over made it
Now she hates me

Oh we in trouble now, you done got me wide open
How can I show you the way that I feel
I know you're gon' want me
Oh we in trouble now, you done left me wide open
Can't even show you the way that I feel
I know you're gon' want me

Wonder Woman, Superman, the perfect song for us to dance
To but not for long, not forever I'm tryna tell ya
Deception is underrated like a Capella
Can't knock a fella, forever tryna give you a glimpse
Of how you should be valued but the truth of it is
As much as I want to be the one to Show you that good things forever last
I know I ain't the one to make you understand
And now you're looking like what's the plan
I wish I never asked 'cause the hurricane got your name on it
It got me brainstorming about a forecast
Plus my inner visions got me going crazy
Mr. Know It All met the Golden Lady
Lady only God can help you, so help me God
Dad warned me to get out of dodge
Bad morning if I wake up with B.L. [?]
So I'm at my wits end like Elvin died
Yeah so I'm at my wits end like Elvin died
Dodge

Oh we in trouble now, you done got me wide open
How can I show you the way that I feel
I know you're gon' want me
Oh we in trouble now, you done left me wide open
Can't even show you the way that I feel

I know you're gon' want me
