

Gray's Conclusion

Christon Gray

La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la

Yeah

Today, I know better than to say what I'll never do (Never do)
Life had to put me on my knees
Humbled, speechless
And you see me with love and meekness
Tell me You'll never cast away my confidence
Because Your grace is sufficient for the consequence
Lord, I just don't wanna hurt you
Gotta a lot to work through

Today, I'm going to add to my faith some virtue (virtue)
Time to be a doer of Your Word
To know is to love You
And to love You is to feed your sheep
True enough, I struggle to keep, publishing peace
Some many have yet to believe
With fear I tremble, at the thought of Your stare
We own this frail understanding of God's love
Not enough to lean on
He owns time
Eons believe on Him
Our lives should be spent on trying to discover
But it seems like, (Yeah) evil is always right there
Givin' it too much credit, just a little bit too much credit
Forget it, it's behind you
Don't embed it
Edit, command, Z
Control, Alt, Delete
Whatever, escape
Mercy at His feet
It's gone
That's the conclusion of it all
C'mon

La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la