

Mender Of Broken Hearts

Christon Gray

You met someone
And you both fell in love from the start, yeah
Always together
And vow that you would never part, yeah
But then you noticed
That there came a change
As if someone else caught their eye
You never thought
You could feel such pain
But you did when they told you goodbye

Come go with me
Let me take you to
The Mender of Broken Hearts
Yeah
Let me take you to
The Mender of
Broken-hearted people

Where help was needed
Then that was the place you were found, yeah
Helping others
Always willing to take down
You gave your all to help any cause
And your coat when someone was colder
It's time to smile and be recognized
But you cry because you were passed over

Come go with me
Let me take you to
The Mender of Broken Hearts
Yeah
Let me take you to
The Mender of
Broken-hearted people

Just take His yoke upon you
It won't be a strain
He'll pick up the pieces
And remove all the pain
He will make it all right

Let me take you to
The Mender of Broken Hearts, yeah
He'll heal you
And make you whole again
Come on and
Go with me
To the Mender of Broken
Broken Hearts
Let me take you to
Come on and go with me
Hey Hey
Oh yeah
(Broken Hearts)
He'll heal you
And make you right

Brand new
He can turn you 'round
Come and go with me
(He'll fix your broken heart)
