

Shallow

Christon Gray

Uh-uh-uuuuuuuh

Uh-uh-uh uh

Baby I'm shallow

But I don't want you to go too far

'Til my world makes sense again

'Til the world makes sense again

And maybe I'm shallow

But the last time you went too far

My world came caving in

Whole world came caving in

The man from the moon came down from a satellite

He thought earth girl-lings were his type

But, he saw Venus in her eyes

He gave her a ring from Saturn on Valentine's

But, she was colder than Pluto

And when the stars aligned, the sun shine on that you know

Hit the Northern Lights

And it's so beautiful

Beautiful

Beautiful

Mmmmm

Then she took all of his money

She a Virgo, he a dummy

Outcast, she a Gemini

She might drown ya, she a water sign, but

Baby I'm shallow

But I don't want you to go too far

'Til my world makes sense again

'Til the world makes sense again

And maybe I'm shallow

But the last time you went too far

My world came caving in

Whole world came caving in

Oooo-oooooooo

Aaaaa-aaaaaaaaah
