

Tears Will Dry

Christophe Willem

It's another brand new day
But it feels like nothings changes
You're love lies in tatters
Nothing else matters
Except the sunshine, moonbeams, anything to make it seem better
Like before, when the whole world felt like yours
Better, but that was before

I will wipe away your saddened tears
So let them roll down baby
I'm the one you will allay your fears
Go ahead cry baby cry
Ohh...
Go ahead cry baby cry
Those tears will dry

You feel deserted and so alone
You don't want to show your face
You hide in the darkness
Never felt like this
You're in so much pain
Like you'll never be the same way again
That depends, you can change your destiny
It'll get better, put your trust in me

I will wipe away your saddened tears
So let them roll down baby
I'm the one you will allay your fears
Go ahead cry baby cry
Ohh...
Go ahead cry baby cry
Those tears will dry

I wanna share all that I know
And give you time to let it grow
I wanna know the deepest part of your soul

I will wipe away your saddened tears
So let them roll down baby
I'm the one you will allay your fears
Go ahead cry baby cry
Ohh...
Go ahead cry baby cry
Those tears will dry
