

Bitter War

Christopher

Give me a dollar
For every tear
I've seen on your face baby
I'd be a millionair
And I'm not denying
What we're fighting for
I'm ok with fighting
But this is war

Did you ever really love me?
Take your aim
'Cause your face is in the mirror
Will not take the blame
I can never really love you
Like before
Cought it to the core

It's a bitter war x 6
Is it even less we're fighting for
It's a bitter war x 6
Is it even love we're fighting for

I take the bullet
I take the blame
But we both know we're losing
In this game
Don't know where my heart is
It's been misplaced
I wish love was the outcome
But it's not the case

Did you ever really love me?
Take your aim
'Cause your face is in the mirror
Will not take the blame
I can never really love you
Like before
Caught it to the core

It's a bitter war x6
Is it even love we're fighting for
It's a bitter war x6
This is war

We were good togther you and me
Love can give no guarantees
Now it's me vs you
Everyone is casualtees
Art should be no battle field
It's a bitter war
It's a bitter war

It's a bitter war x6
Is it even love we're fighting for
It's a bitter war x2
Tell me
'Cause I'm not sure

Is it even love we're fighting for
It's a bitter war x6
Is it even love we're fighting for
