

Hey Love

Christopher

Hey love
I'm fucked
Don't trust
Me now

'Cause I know I said that I would be a rock
But I'm desperately the one in need of love right now
There's no shining out if you don't shine me up
Please don't hang up
Hey love

Hey love
I'm stuck
Life really sucks
Right now

'Cause I know I said that I would be a rock
But I'm desperately the one in need of love right now
There's no shining out if you don't shine me up
Please don't hang up
Hey love

Hey life
Just know
That my little light
Still glows

Under the skin of it we share the blood and bones
And I think the point is no one really knows just how it goes
Life is so unfair it's okay to be scared
Are you still there?
Hey love
Hey love
Hey love
