

Hungover

Christopher

Sorry last night's still a bit blurry
That guy wasn't that on me
Guess that I was just drunk in love with whiskey
Passed that point of just tipsy
'round that time when you met me
I might've said I've fallen in love

Drink by drink I say
Way too much
So go ahead and hate me

Cause I'm just a little hungover
It's not like I don't know ya
I know I should have stayed sober
But I can't help myself

I know I promised you diamonds
But right now I can't find them
I probably should have stayed sober
But I can't help myself

When it comes to you [x3]
I can't help myself

If finally
I find courage to kindly
Tell you that it's time I leave
I know the excuse that I had was bad
So go and written me off
It don't mean nothin'
Said there will never be
Not even friends
Just let me explain

Drink by drink I say
Way too much
So go ahead and hate me

Cause I'm just a little hungover
It's not like I don't know ya
I know I should have stayed sober
But I can't help myself

I know I promised you diamonds
But right now I can't find them
I probably should have stayed sober
But I can't help myself

And I know I messed it up
And I can't drink this away
I can't hate myself
Don't you know that
I'm not crying over closure
So go tell your friends
Tell all of them
Still do it again
I apologize but I can't lie

Cause I'm just a little hungover
I know I should have stayed sober

I know I promised you diamonds

When it comes to you [x3]
I can't help myself
