

Lose A You

Christopher

This
Might be the end of me
I wouldn't wish this on
My worst enemy
It's like I'm running outta time
Time
Ain't gonna fix this
Ain't gonna make it all right now

And I've tried everything
To make the pain disappear
And now we're running up
On about a year of being
High
And I keep praying
But it feels a lot like saying

Goodbye
It's not easy to say to somebody like you
But I try
But baby

You'll never know
What it feels like
To lose a you
I guess that makes you
The lucky one, the lucky one
Now all I want is for you to
Feel bad for me 'cause it's way worse
To lose a you than you lose a me
Oh my Lord
I'm glad you don't feel
The way I feel
I guess that makes you
The lucky one, the lucky one
Now all I want is for you to
Feel bad for me 'cause it's way worse
To lose a you than to lose a me

I
Wish you the best honey
And I bet you move on fast
How can I be funny
When you're not here to laugh?
I just cry
Every time that I think about
That moment we agreed on

Goodbye
But I try
But baby

You'll never know
To lose a you

I guess that makes you
Now all I want is for you to
Feel bad for me 'cause it's way worse
To lose a you than you lose a me
Oh my Lord
The way I feel
I guess that makes you
Now all I want is for you to
Feel bad for me 'cause it's way worse
To lose a you (than to lose a me)

Goodbye
But I try
But baby

You'll never know
To lose a you
I guess that makes you
The lucky one, the lucky one
Now all I want is for you to
Feel bad for me 'cause it's way worse
To lose a you than you lose a me
Oh my Lord
The way I feel
I guess that makes you
Now all I want is for you to
Feel bad for me 'cause it's way worse
