

Monogamy

Christopher

I just want you to feel
I just want you to feel
You got somebody

Some people got a problem with monogamy
I never cheated yeah my mama she's so proud of me
But my relationship is tested constantly
And yes, I guess

These pretty girls they're tryna get me confused
Though I get cravings they got nothing on you
Damn it's so tempting but I leave on my own
My heart is hungry, but I need her

I just want you to feel
Unjealous love
I just want you to feel
Unselfish love
Come put that sexy thing on top of me
And between us
I just want you to feel
I just want you to feel
You got somebody

I know some people struggling with honesty
Sometimes it feels like we're working against biology
I love to love and to me love just comes so easlily
And yes, I'm blessed

These pretty girls they're tryna get me confused
Though I get cravings they got nothing on you
Damn it's so tempting but I leave on my own
My heart is hungry, but I need her

I just want you to feel
Unjealous love
I just want you to feel
Unselfish love
Come put that sexy thing on top of me
And between us
I just want you to feel
I just want you to feel
You got somebody

(Don't be jealous, love)
You got somebody
(You're the one I want)
Come put that sexy on me
(Don't be jealous, love)
You got somebody
(You're the one I want)

Everybody makes mistakes
And I never said I was perfect
For you I'll go out of my way
Cause you are so incomparable babe
In every sensational way

Nobody, nobody does it like you

I just want you to feel
Unjealous love
Unselfish love
And between us
You got somebody

(Don't be jealous, love)
You got somebody
(You're the one I want)
Come put that sexy on me
(Don't be jealous, love)
You got somebody
(You're the one I want)
Come put that sexy on me
