

Orbit

Christopher

Who's gonna save my soul
If your love runs cold
Who's gonna bring me back, back into orbit

I got a need for speed
And I lose my feet
And then you're bringing me back into orbit

A small body of matter just casually entering your atmosphere
Meteor man on a collision course
Ain't got no business around here

And I know I seem so far away
Just know that I'm always near
Just take a look at the sky above
And a streak of light will appear

Ooh
I was born to be a spaceman
Ooh
And my mama already know
Ooh
Now you're giving me vertigo
Going full speed so

Who's gonna save my soul
If your love runs cold
Who's gonna bring me back, back into orbit

I got a need for speed
And I lose my feet
And then you're bringing me back into orbit

I know I get so caught up in myself
And I'm not easy to be around
And I'm so sorry 'bout the mess that I'm making
I'm just tryna make you proud

And now I'm full speed ahead the horizon
And the truth is my only way out

Ooh
I was born to be a space man
Ooh
And my mama already know
Ooh
Now you're giving me vertigo
Going full speed so

Who's gonna save my soul
If your love runs cold
Who's gonna bring me back, back into orbit

I got a need for speed
And I lose my feet
And then you're bringing me back into orbit

Baby you know I'm a dancer
Out there looking for answers
Blowing around in the wind
Like a fool
All the things that I'm chasing
Know you're tryna be patient
Baby you know that I'm changing
For you

We come from the same cloth
Whether you like it or not
That's why you bring me back, back into orbit

'Cause you're my moon my sun
And I'm your son of a gun
That's why you bring me back, back into orbit

So, who's gonna save my soul

I got a need for speed
And I lose my feet
And then you're bringing me back into orbit

Baby you know I'm a dancer
Like a fool

All the things that I'm chasing
Know you try to be patient
Baby you know that I'm changing
For you

Who's gonna save my soul

And when you look at me
You really look at me
That's why you're everything I ever wanted
