

Ready To Go

Christopher

Where do you go when
You've lost a friend
How do you sleep when
You don't wanna wake up again

My wheels burning
And yours keep turning around
And when I think about it
I'm not ready to go
The more I think about it
I'm not ready to go

How do you hold on
When there's nothing to hold on to
And what is a home run
If it's a home without you

My wheels burning
And yours keep turning around
And when I think about it
I'm not ready to go
The more I think about it
I'm not ready to go
Yeah the more I think about it
I'm not ready to go
