

Reasons

Christopher

Yeah, out in the cold
There's something behind you
You're hearing the beat
My heart is inside you
You're looking high
I'm looking to find you
Cause you can't run away from love

You're looking away
Away from the monster
A beautiful face
And nice like your mother
Got something to say
To say to your father
Cause I can't run away from love

I'll be the reason that you loosin' your daughter
She'll be the reason that you gave it a son
She is an angel I thank god that I got her
And I promise I will offer more than the sun

Yeah I'm the cold
The something behind you
You're hearing the beat
My heart is inside you
You're looking high
I'm looking to find you
Cause you can't run away from love

She got ass
And yeah, she got class
And yeah she's so bad
And that swayayay
Give so much
I can't get enough of her tatata and that swayayay

I'll be the reason that you loosin' your daughter
She'll be the reason that you gave it a son
She is an angel I thank god that I got her
And I promise I will offer more than the sun
These are all the reasons I
Wanna take her home tonight
These are all the reasons I
Wanna take her home tonight

She got ass
And yeah, she got class
And yeah she's so bad
And that swayayay
Give so much
I can't get enough of her tatata and that swayayay
She got ass
Give so much

I'll be the reason that you loosin' your daughter
She'll be the reason that you gave it a son
She is an angel I thank god that I got her
And I promise I will offer more than the sun
(More than the sun)

I'll be the reason that you loosin' your daughter
She'll be the reason that you gave it a son
She is an angel I thank god that I got her
And I promise I will offer more than the sun
