

The Chancer

Christopher

What's it like to be near you?
To know you? To hold you?
'Cause I've been looking for someone to make me feel good, feel good, alright
And I doubt just a little, I doubt just a little Everytime that you walk by
'Cause I've been looking for someone,
just like you, just like you

Tell me, are you a ticking time bomb, baby?
Time bomb baby, time bomb baby
Are you a ticking time bomb, baby?
Time bomb baby, time bomb baby

Tonight, would you be my tiny dancer
And don't think me rude, I've been waiting a whole lifetime to ask you
I would give my holy heart to hold you
And tonight I'm gonna bury this safe heart and call it the chan
cer

What's it like to be close to you?
Beside you? Mean something to you?
Tell me have you got a fire, inside you?
Looking full of little life
'Cause it die just a little, I die just a little Everytime you walk by 'Cause I've been looking for someone, just like you, just like you

Tell me, are you a ticking time bomb, baby?
Time bomb baby, time bomb baby
Are you a ticking time bomb, baby?
Time bomb baby, time bomb baby

Tonight, would be my tiny dancer
And don't think me rude, I've been waiting a whole lifetime to ask you
And tonight I'm gonna bury this safe heart and call it the chan
cer

Tonight, would be my tiny dancer
And don't think me rude, I've been waiting a whole lifetime to ask you
I would give my holy heart to hold you Baby tonight I'm gonna bury this safe heart and call it the cha ncer
