

Would Ya

Christopher

Darling, for you, darling, for you, I would I'd do anything, I'd do anything a man should
I would take all the blame when you're cursing my name, yes, I would
I would take all the pain, I would carry all the weight for you

With you in my arms
With you in my arms, I need nothing
I need nothing, baby
I knew it from the start
I knew it from the start, here's something

Here's a little toast to my best friend
To my wonder woman, to my everything
Would ya
Would you trust me if I said I'd die for you
Would you look into my eyes and say I do
Would ya
Would ya, baby

Would you
Would ya

And darling, for you, darling, for you I would
If I was your man, I'd do anything I could
Though I'm not gonna lie, from the moment that I, that I saw you (feeling, oh)
Feeling alive when you're walking by my side, it's true

With you in my arms
With you in my arms, I need nothing
I need nothing, baby
I knew it from the start
I knew it from the start, here's something

To my wonder woman, to my everything
Would ya
Would you trust me if I said I'd die for you
Would you look into my eyes and say I do
Would ya
Would ya, baby

Would you
Would ya
Would you
Would ya
