

Always Remember to Never Forget

Christy Nockels

Hey there beautiful one, you there shining with glory
Would you let your heart hear, if I sang about you
Did you know that every fairy tale you love

They have borrowed your story
Of a maiden so lovely, and a hero so true

It's just that this world is hollow
And it wants to swallow
Any memory of who you really are

Always remember to never forget
When you look in the mirror, the answer is yes
Yes you are pure as gold, yes you are beautiful
So always remember to never forget
Always remember to never forget

Like a treasure in the deep, your heart is a diamond
And your hero will do what it takes to find it
So he can hold it tenderly, and become your defender
Even lay down his life, just to make your heart his

It's just that this world is broken
And it wants to hold back
Any evidence of, that kind of love

So always remember to never forget
When you look in the mirror, the answer is yes
Yes you are pure as gold, yes you are beautiful
So always remember to never forget
Always remember to never forget

My darling your light, his favourite parade
On a bright sunny day, in the middle of the mossy forest
You'll dance, in your favourite dress
And oh how he loves when you never forget

So always remember to never forget
When you look in the mirror, the answer is yes
Yes you are pure as gold, yes you are beautiful
So always remember to never forget
Always remember to never forget

So always remember to never forget
So always remember to never, baby never forget
