

Break the Chains

CHROM

I've let you down so I can move on Cause I can't stand the way you are Don't wanna lose my face for no one
This is my chance to be apart

Now you're the worst thing in my life
And I don't need this anymore
I've gotta tell you this before I die

Cause you're the worst thing in my life
And I can't stand you anymore
It doesn't matter what I try
(It's not getting better)

Each day you celebrate the violence
Tell me who do you think you are
All I want is to live in silence
Why did I let you get so far
