

Let It Go

CHROM

I woke up just for today
And it started so confused
Too many sorrows in my way
I've gotta let it go

I don't know how to make my way
And I don't really care at all
I guess that this is just the day
I've gotta let it go

This is the time to get away from me
Cause you don't want to see the things I see
Now all the people look the same to me
Just turn around and try to set me free

I feel bad and incomplete
So don't you dare to follow me
Now you should stand on your two feet
And try to let it go

Look in these eyes, what do you see
Is this the future, are you sure
Don't hesitate and this will be
The way to let it go
