

Morbid Mind

CHROM

Now look at you... your so beautiful
Make me confuse... no you make me crawl
And by the way... it's our time to fall
I gotta say... you break my will you take it all
I see your face... it's like a miracle
Need your embrace... but it's impossible
I go insane... about the way you walk
Inside my brain... you're naked now, don't wanna talk

I'm gonna hate today, 'cause I just love the way
I will be cruel to you, no matter what you do
I can't stand to wait, you always hesitate
This love is wrong I know, but I can't stop the show

I want to lick your sweat, you turn around instead
I guess I lose my mind, but I still try to find
My truth my destiny, the craving's constantly
I'm just a morbid mind, don't ever look behind
