

New Impression

CHROM

It's time to look behind now
To separate and give a sign
I try to understand why
Confusion's killing me inside

No more compromises
I wish that I could just rewind
Let's do some exercises
To see what we will never find

I waste my time
As I hang around with you
I can't deny
You caught my mind
And there's nothing I can do
You crucify
So I just fall
I'm moving to the ground
You disappear
I feel so small
Keep spinning round and round
The end is near

Just like a cruel obsession
Your words keep burning in my mind
I got a new impression
Don't fear the darkness right behind
