

Only You

CHROM

Spüren wir nicht auch manchmal wie dieser Wahnsinn nach uns greift?

I don't wanna feel like garbage
I don't wanna lose myself in you
I try to keep the courage
I try to separate the truth

It's not always my fault
Come on forget about your pride
If you don't the world could be cold
Come on it's time now to decide

All I ever waited for
Was the chance to reach your door
All I wanted you to do
Say these words

Only you

Now I'm lying on the floor
Sad and lonely more and more
That's the way that I had to choose
Say these words

Only you

I wish that I could leave you
I wish that I could give a sign
My eyes were closed and blinded
I've been wrong that I could make you mine

The sanity is fading
Look in my heart that you destroyed
All the time I've been waiting
For the moment I go paranoid

All I ever waited for
Was the chance to reach your door
All I wanted you to do
Say these words

Only you

Now I'm lying on the floor
Sad and lonely more and more
That's the way that I had to choose
Say these words

Only you
