

Paralysed

CHROM

In this world of my perception
There's no one else like me
And every true reflection
Scares the hell out of me

I can't move, I'm paralysed now
In this world that turns so fast
I made it so far and somehow
I was first and I will be the last

I can't breathe when my time has come I know
I'm too weak and I gotta let it go
It's my fault and I regret, don't wanna see it
So I turn around instead
I still hear the voices in my head

I guess I took the wrong direction
The faceless stare at me
Try to give no attention
They're still getting close to me

I can't move, I'm paralysed now
In this world that turns so fast
I made it so far and somehow
I was first and I will be the last

(I can't breathe, I can't talk, I can't move, I can't walk)
