

Walked the Line

CHROM

I can't remember anything you've said
I try to hide it and I smile instead
I hope and pray that you are by my side
I'm restless and I can't sleep at night
My mind's weird and I try to keep control

And I always walked the line
I guess I did it all the time
It was never good for me
I surrendered now I see
Everybody has to choose
How to live without excuse
There's no time to hesitate
'Cause I don't believe in fate

Aber wenn man die Wirklichkeit nicht mehr als das erkennt, was sie ist kann man daran zerbrechen!

I'm on the run - I try to get away
Leave me alone - I don't wanna stay
I can run but I can't hide
I can't get no sleep at night
I'm sick and tired - There's nothing I can do

No, I don't believe in fate
