

Your Destiny

CHROM

Moving into dark clouds
And I feel this is the time to run
I can't close my eyes
Cause I am scared, I'm waiting for the sun
Someone's calling me
Try to ignore it but it's all around
Fear is paralyzing
I can't move, I'm lying on the ground

Come on follow me
And I'll show you all the places you can go
I will make you see
That there's so much more than all the things you know
Give yourself to me
It's your fate and there is nothing you can do
Life's your destiny
Don't regret just make believe that you will grow

I have lost control
And I can't hide my panic deep inside
Try to find a hole
Where I can fall into and lose my pride
Now I live in darkness
I can use it just to look behind
But the voice is still calling
And it hurts, it's taking my mind

And it's taken my mind

Come on follow me
And I'll show you all the places you can go
I will make you see
That there's so much more than all the things you know
Give yourself to me
It's your fate and there is nothing you can do
Life's your destiny
Don't regret just make believe that you will grow

Come on follow me
And I'll show you all the places you can go
I will make you see
That there's so much more than all the things you know
Give yourself to me
It's your fate and there is nothing you can do
Life's your destiny
Don't regret just make believe that you will grow
