

The Call

Chrome Division

Oh!
There is a thousand ways
You can try to convince me
That staying home is right.
There's only one feeling inside my chest
And it screams set me free tonight.

Set me free tonight

So many times I've tried to deny it
But it never seems to work
The only time I feel alive
Is when the hunter goes to work

Oh...
Tonight you know something is going down
Me and my brothers are meeting
In our favorite place downtown
It ain't no chance you can win
You know you're bound to fall
It ain't no reason to try
You can't deny the call

So many times I've tried to convince myself
That my ways are wrong
When it all comes down I just can't help it
Cause my urges are too strong

Oh...
Tonight you know something is going down
Me and my brothers are meeting
In our favorite place downtown
It ain't no chance you can win
You know you're bound to fall
It ain't no reason to try
You can't deny the call...

How I love to watch
The sun go down in my home town
It's like watching that sweat
Dripping from a young girl
That's when the dull people leave the streets
And the night people
Arise

Oh...
Tonight you know something is going down
Me and my brothers are meeting
In our favorite place downtown
It ain't no chance you can win
You know you're bound to fall
It ain't no reason to try
You can't deny your call...
