

On My Mind

Chromeo

I can't get you but you're on my mind
I can't get you but you're on my mind

How do you love someone, when they're so out of reach
How do you touch someone, when the trust has been breached
How do you teach someone, if you don't wanna repeat
A promise you make's a promise you keep and that's not a figure of speech
To each his own, I stand on my own two left feet
That's why I dance alone, and I'm always missing a beat
But I keep it goin', cuz the outcome ain't bleak
See life is a peach when you finally get what you need

I can't get you but you're on my mind
I can't get you but you're on my mind
Oh baby won't you stay
I can't get you but you're on my mind
I can't get you but you're on my mind
Oh baby won't you stay

Don't worry 'bout it
A bruised ego will heal soon enough and you'll feel like it's a brand new day
And they'll come running back to you cuz
All you had to do was Turn and look the other way

I can't get you but you're on my mind
I can't get you but you're on my mind
Oh baby won't you stay
I can't get you but you're on my mind
I can't get you but you're on my mind
Oh baby won't you stay
