

3/4 Time (Enchiladas)

Chuck Berry

I like Enchiladas, all the El Dorados that shine
Old red guitar, rock'n roll, nice girls and wine
Say it ain't good for me but people I'm still feeling fine
I just hold onto my guitar and rock it out 4/5 time

Sometimes I get sideways, stay up all night writing songs (you know)
I know it ain't healthy but somehow I keep going on Just sit there and write, don't care if the darn thing don't rhyme
As long as I've got my guitar, rock it out 4/5 time

That's called titillating

You know, it's a mean old world and we all gotta live our lives
(Yes we do!)
Dang, one thing for certain, ain't none of us gonna get away from here alive
So while I'm still kicking, I'm gonna keep picking my tunes
I love what I'm doing, I hope it don't end too soon
All of my life there's one thing I've been hoping to find
A woman like you, honey, whose software matches this hard drive of mine
